"Labyrinth Of Anxiety"

Unholy land greets her with fog and death
The further the worse - anxiety whispers
More subtle than scent the sense of hunting is
In a labyrinth of crashed memories
Memory dances among the ashes
Fear and horror biting deep

Anxiety whispers Anxiety screams

Fear and horror biting deep
Pyres burning, sword is cutting
Painful pleasures lick with their tongues

Out from here comes evil
Out from here gushes blood
Out from here sips poison
Out from here pain and suffering

The only just ones screamed in savage madness
False prophets with love offered pain
Prayers bringing an overwhelming fear
Meticulous intrigues, ignorance and humiliation

Inculcated hatred against everything about the magic Soaking through every world
Trapped waves hitting the ruins
But there is always someone for the dark wisdom to survive
