„This can't last forever"
You told me last year
Now we're still together
But I can't think

What is true
Is that you?
Is that me
What you need?

There's this gap in your heart
I want to be my part
But every time I grab it
It turns to be hard

Is that me?
Is that you?
Is this thing
Something real?

Put your fingers on my lips
Lie down next to me

"This can't last forever"
You told me last week
Now we're still together
But I can't think

What is true
Is that you?
Is that me
What you need?

Put your fingers on my lips
Lie down next to me
'Cause I know what is true
It's you
Yes, it's me, what you need
So put your fingers on my lips
Lie down next to me
(There's this gap in your heart
And it turns to be hard)
