Every time I feel kind of weak
I like to hear this sound
I want to listen the voice of the train
The voice of hope and strength

Listen, now! Ta tam, ta tam, ta tam...
Listen, now! It says: you're not alone
You've got this coach on your side

Every time I feel kind of alone
I like to hear this sound
I want to listen the voice of the train
The voice of love and hate

Listen, now! Ta tam, ta tam, ta tam...
Listen, now! It says: you're not alone
You've got this coach on your side

Why do you want to say goodbye?
Why wouldn't you stay in here?
Why do you want this pain for me?
Oh, you want to leave me by this switch!

If I held your love by the hand...
If I knew your fears by the names...
If I broke all the walls on your land...
If I walked all this time on your line...

Why do you want this pain!
