So long, sweet Summer
I stumbled upon you
And gratefully
Basked in your rays
So long, sweet Slumber
I fell into you
Now you gracefully fallen away

Hey, thanks
Thanks for that summer
It's cool where you're going
I hope that your heart's
Always warm
I gave you the best
I gave you the best I have
Cashed on the letters
And crashed on the best
That I have

So long, sweet Summer
I stumbled upon you
And gratefully
Basked in your rays
So long, sweet Slumber
I fell into you
Now you gracefully fallen away

I hate the winter
In Lexington
