Its not that I'm missing or even that I'm needing you, its just that I'm scared to be alone, and for all of the nights spent alone by her side wishing she would just breath a word.

And I'm screaming- at the top of my lungs,
And I'm breathing- cause you've left me undone,
And I'm looking for reasons for words that you just could not say.

I'm dying for something,
I'm living for nothing,
and needing to just hear those words.
I'll leave you again,
and gain all the pain that I can.

its not that I'm listening or even that I'm hearing you, its just that I'm scared of what you'll say,
and for all of the nights spent alone by her side
wishing she would just breath a word.

And I'm screaming- at the top of my lungs,
And I'm breathing- cause you've left me undone,
And I'm looking for reasons for words that you just
could not say.

I'm dying for something,
I'm living for nothing,
and needing to just hear those words.
I'll leave you again,
and gain all the pain that I can.
I'll leave you again,
and gain all the pain that I can.
