I lay down, I can't sleep
My mind runs on repeat
I stare at the ceiling from my side
I reach out, You're right there
But you're lost in the details
I wait for the end of a long night

You can blame it on the changes
I can take it any way it is
We got lost but we both found
We need this more than ever now
Can we dig in?
Can we save it?
Sink our teeth in, tear away at it
Can we hold out?
Can you hold on?
Cause I need you more than you know now

We play like we don't know
We both lie but we don't show
That something is changing between us
We start out in one lane
The same road, the same name
But something we can't see divides us

You can blame it on the changes
I can take it any way it is
We just got lost but we both found
We need this more than ever now
Can we dig in?
Can we save it?
Sink our teeth in, tear away at it
Can we hold out?
Can you hold on?
Cause I need this more than you know now
Cause I need you more than you know now
Cause I need you more than you know now

Don't run away
Don't run away
Don't run away
Don't run away

You can blame it on the changes
I can take it any way it is
We just got lost but we both found
We ned this more tahn ever now
Can we dig in?
Can we save it?
Sink our teeth in, tear away at it
Can we hold out?
Can you hold on?
Cause I need this more than ever
Cause I need you more than you know now
