We went rolling up the coast
Till there was no more coast to wander
We tried every different road
Just to see which led us further
We were living on the run
Though there was no one chasing after
We were looking out for love
And we were flirting with disaster
While the world fades out
We stayed in the sun too long
Suffered a terrible burn
Now everybody learns from disaster
We stayed on the run too long
Hoping we'd never return
Now everybody learns from disaster
We watched the sun burn down, into cinders
We turned out onto the plains
We turned in when we got tired
We slept two across the bench
And we fit three under the covers
We had just enough cash left
To top the tank and fill the cooler
And we lit the van with dreams
After sun burned into cinders
And the world fades out
We stayed in the sun too long
Suffered a terrible burn
Now everybody learns from disaster
We stayed on the run too long
Hoping we'd never return
Now everybody learns from disaster
We watched the sun burn down, into cinders
We watched the sun burn down, into cinders, into cinders
We watched the sun burn down
We watched the sun burn down, into cinders
We stayed in the sun too long
Suffered a terrible burn
Now everybody learns from disaster
We watched the sun burn down
We watched the sun burn down
Into cinders, into cinders, into cinders, into cinders

We watched the sun burn down
We watched the sun burn down, into cinders
