Hey girl, you've got a smart way
About you that makes me
Wish that I was smart enough for you

Hey girl, you've got a fine laugh
And I think that I could get used to that
And you're already used to laughing at me

So what if your friends think I'm crazy?
Well, I wasn't trying to impress those girls anyway
They're all theory, no action
And where I'm from we live like it's the latest attraction

Hey girl, you've got a short fuse
And I've got designs on lighting you up
And setting you off and watching you burn for me

The world lives for the weekend
Well, I'll watch as my weeks bleed right into them
Without a line to divide, what is their's and what is mine

So what if your friends think I'm crazy?
Well, I wasn't trying to impress those girls anyway
They're all theory, no action
And where I'm from we live like it's the latest attraction

Go on, go on, your cruel intentions won't
Solve your problems everyone's gotta get
Bottom, bottomed out in the long run
And those are the times you need love

Go on, go on, your cruel intentions won't
Solve your problems everyone's gotta get
Bottom, bottomed out in the long run
And those are the times you need love

Go on, go on, your cruel intentions won't
Solve your problems everyone's gotta get
Bottom, bottomed out in the long run
And those are the times you need love
