You've come to say you wanted out but I can't say I blame you now, Sometimes you got to fall before you're found out.
Thanks for waiting this long to show yourself, cause now that I can see you,
I don't think you're worth a second glance

So much for all the promises you've made, it served you well
and now their gone and they're wasted on me.
So much for your enduring sense of charm, it served
youwell
and now you're gone and your wasted on me.

You've come to say you want it all,
but I can't say I blame you now,
Sometimes you got to fall before you're found out.
Well thanks, thanks for waiting this long to show yourself to show yourself because now that I can see you,
I don't think you're worth a second glance.

So much for all the promises you've made, it served
you well
now their gone and they're wasted all on me.
So much for your enduring sense of charm, it served
you well
now you're gone and it's wasted all on me.

I guess that all you've got is all you're gonna get,
so much for, so much for
I guess that all you've got is all you're gonna get,
so much for, so much for
