Oh sweet lungs don't fail me now
Your burning has turned into fear
That trails me in my every step I'm movin' quick
But you're always on my heels

Just one more breath, I beg you please
Just one more step, my knees are weak
My heart is sturdy but it needs you to survive
My heart is sturdy but it needs you

Breathe
Don't you want to breathe
I know that you are strong enough to handle what I need
My capalaries scream
My body needs a reason to cross the line
Will you carry me there one more time

Steady lungs don't fail me know
I feel you bursting, but you wont let me die
Fill me up with every step, I'm feeling sick
But I'm leaving it behind

Just one more breath I beg you please
Just one more step my knees are weak
My legs are sturdy but they need you to survive
My heart is sturdy but I need you

Breathe
Don't you want to breathe
I know that you are strong enough to handle what i
need
My capalaries scream
My body needs a reason to cross the line
Will you carry me there once more

I have reason to believe
That I have victories to taste
I can feel them on my teeth
Upon my lips

And in my chest
I can roll them on my tongue
They almost supplement the feat
I feel the tension in my lungs
And every move is filled with my resolve to

Breathe
Don't you want to breathe
I know that you are strong enough to handle what i
need
My capalaries scream
My body needs a reason to cross that line
Will you carry me there one more time
