So long sweet summer
(So long sweet summer)
I stumbled upon you and gratefully basked in your rays
So long sweet slumber
(So long sweet slumber)
I fell into you, now you're gracefully falling away

Hey thanks, thanks for that summer
It's cold where you're going
I hope that your hearts always warm
(Hope that your hearts always warm)

I gave you the best, I gave you the best that I had (Gave the best I had)
Passed down the letters and passed down the best that I had (Passed the best I had)

So long sweet summer
(So long sweet summer)
I stumbled upon you and gratefully basked in your rays
So long sweet slumber
(So long sweet slumber)
I fell into you, now you're gracefully falling away

I hate the winter in Lexington
I hate the winter in Lexington
Lexington, Lexington, Lexington
