I can't remember the time or place, or what you were wearing, it's unclear about how we met, all I know it was the best conversation that I've ever had,
to this day I never found someone, with eyes as wide as yours, I've been searching up and down this coast, overlooking what I need the most did you notice I was afraid?

I thought I'd run out of things to say,
two more hours until today burns this away,
and it starts all over again,
the sky will never look the same again,
till you show me how it could be,
the sky will never look the same again,
till you show me how it could be

and everything else is irrelevant, to the story so far,
a coincidence that you looked like her from afar, is it true that you like to sleep alone?
Or is it what you just tell everyone?

Did you notice that I was afraid?

I thought I'd run out of things to say
two more hours until today burns this away,
till you show me how it could be
the sky will never look the same again

and when the world turns over ill keep my ears to the wall and when the world turns over ill keep my feet straight on the ground did u notice I was afraid?

I thought I'd run out of things to say,

two more hours until today burns this away,
and it starts all over again,
the sky will never look the same again
till you show me how it could be
the sky will never look the same again
