It was the year, I crashed my motorbike
I think it was the summer
I think you whispered
"When you gonna wake up,
When you gonna wake up?"

Dear, slip these on your tongue
Little seeds of reinvention
In Angels hands
The medicine of modern man

Wait now,
Tell me that this isn't over,
Hang on,
Just long enough

If this is heaven
Or if it's just a warning
Say you will
Stay with me
Even if it's just 'til morning
If this is over
Then why is it so hard just
Say you will
Stay here with me
One more night

Stay here
And we can start again
We could be made over
You'll hear us shouting
"When you gonna wake up,
When you gonna wake up?"

Scared,
Well everyone gets scared
Just signal when you're ready
In Angels hands sleep so steady,
Sleep so steady

Wait now,
Tell me that this isn't over

Hang on,
Just long enough

If this is heaven
Or if it's just a warning
Say you will
Stay with me
Even if it's just 'til morning
If this is over
Then why is it so hard just
Say you will
Stay here with me
One more night

If you're running, from your secrets
I will make you take them with you
I am ready, I can take it
You don't have to carry them alone
There's a way out, if you want it
To an end, or a new beginning
You just have to find it on your own

If this is heaven
Or if it's just a warning
Say you will
Stay with me

If this is over
Then why is it so hard just
Say you will
Stay with me
One more night
One more night
One more night

Even if it's just til morning
One more night
One more night
One more night
Even if it's just til morning
