"Hatred For Hats"

I've touched the water and
It feels like steel
I wash my face in aggravation
The morning light
It doesn't seem quite right
And everything is different now

And you put them on
Tell me who are you today
And I don't know why
Why you say the things you say

Hang my picture on
Your fallen wall
Beware the atmosphere is changing
My tongue is dead
Too many words is said
I'm wondering where you went till now

And you put them on
Wish you'd throw them all away
And you see I've got
A hatred for hats today
