The wind caught the seagull and chased it off the shore

See how it trembles

Givin' in, drifting off

A boy lit a cigarette

While the girl closed the door

These hopeless romantic fools

Won't be lovers no more

But see how the waves are rushing in

And see how the waves are washing off

Leaving the shore so pure

Cleansing until it's white as snow

A dear's gasping for air

It's made its last mistake

A fool for old nature's rules

Drifts away in the wake of the dawn

A car leaves the front yard

Of a house she calls home

Her man won't be back again

Won't be home anymore

But see how the waves are rushing in

And see how the waves are washing off

Leaving the shore so pure

Cleansing until it's white as snow

New day's dawn as the dark drifts away
