I've been me
I've been following my dreams
Trying to find the scene
Where you believed me
I've been true
I've been waiting here for you
I've been patient, understanding
And believe me

Every time you turn around
I know you're standing there
Waiting for me
To take it all back down the other road, baby
But I won't let you down
I know you're standing there
Waiting for me
To take it all back down the other road, baby
But I won't let you down
Every time you turn around

Yeah

I've been good
I've been doing what I should
Working hard to make a world
That we can live in
I've been strong
I've been holding out so long
And I don't want you to forget
You are forgivin

I know you're standing there
Waiting for me
To take it all back down the other road, baby
But I won't let you down
I know you're standing there
Waiting for me
To take it all back down the other road, baby
But I won't let you down
Every time you turn around
Yeah

All the reasons you believe what you believe
Never seeing that the truth is a part of me
Now what I wanna do is show you what it really means to love
What it really means to love

I know you're standing there
Waiting for me
To take it all back down the other road, baby
But I won't let you down
I see you're standing there
Waiting for me
To take it all back down the other road, baby
But I won't let you down
Oh

Every time you turn around
