Cry out
For all who care to know
I've been hollow way to long
I know where I'm going wrong

There's nothing I can do
I believe you can get me through
(It's you that I'm believing)
Nothing else will do
I believe you can get me through
(So can you stop the bleeding)

Color blind
I paint your blue sky gray
This time you'll shed some light on me
Just before I fade away

There's nothing I can do
I believe you can get me through
(It's you that I'm believing)
Nothing else will do
I believe you can get me through
(So can you stop the bleeding)

All the chances that you've taken
Promises that I keep breaking
Now the writing's on the wall
Can't make out all the letters
But I know it's getting better now
The writing's on
The writing's on the wall

There's nothing I can do
I believe you can get me through
(It's you that I'm believing)
Nothing else will do
I believe you can get me through
(So can you stop the bleeding)
