You won't give in to the graves.
You took my heart, your blood and disgrace.
I won't rest till I see you pray
One of many parts of the swarm
Although the queen, you are not mine.
Get ready, bitch, to die.
You'll use the weak, you fuckin' slut
You can't survive.
Now see a glimpse through my eyes.
Low, last gasp hoe whore
You'll succumb to these graves.
You took my heart, your blood and disgrace.
I won't rest till I see you pray,
You'll always be part of the swarm
And you will not live to be mine.
You've raped the fuckin' weak, you stupid slut.
You can't survive.

As the flood heads to the sky
You'll be trapped, drown and die.
Another life is all you're asking.
You gasp for air but sink beneath.
Your life, life is sinking on these decks.
You murdered them, choose your grave.
It's your last chance.
I'll sing along to your dying screams through my bloody hands.
You've inflicted too much pain,
You've paid the price
I've ripped out your fuckin' veins.
I know this blade could take your pathetic life
But as I stand alone, I'm losing my last sight.
Story so unknown, you're my life
Just thrown around.
Flood of red, then a body left to rot.
Last gasp hoe.
Last gasp.
