Dusty road
Hopeless eyes
Looking at the blinding lights
Saw your ghost here tonight
It lingers on and I feel your life
Pulling me back to the place
But the thought of staring back at you is more than I can face

It's a long way now
From where I used to rest my head
It's safe and sound
If only I could turn around
There's no direction where I stand
Just dead end signs and wasted land.
It's a long way now
To you

Trust in hope
She left me standing by
To find what's lost
Is it in her eyes?
Pulling me back to the place
Just thinking of myself without you is more than I can take

It's a long way now,
From where I used to rest my head
It's safe and sound
If only I could turn around
There's no direction where I stand
Just dead end signs and wasted land
It's a long way now, to you
To you
To you
To you...

Saw your ghost
Here tonight
It lingers on, and I feel your life

It's a long way now

From where I used to rest my head
It's safe and sound
If only I could turn around
There's no direction where I stand
Just dead end signs and wasted land
It's a long way now
From where I used to rest my head
It's safe and sound
If only I could turn around
There's no direction where I stand
It's a long way now
It's a long way now
It's a long way now
To you!
