"Traffic Light"

The traffic light
Waits for you to tell me the tale of a shattered life, tonight
And I just passed by when you have had the chance to fight
Or would you spend your last days alone Thinkin nobody would have cared or known just look me in the eye and see that its a light So you're telling me, this is how you're going down
You thought that I never really wanted you around Well you are way off track to think like that Coz now you have taken back, everything that you ever said bout how Id never want to see you again
Well this is what I, what I left behind
What I left behind, what I left behind Need a change
In a minute of my time did I get your name?
Well you say, that I haven't been asked that in years
Now I think, the traffic light that stood in the way
So that I can hear what you had to say I'm half way through your story
Cant help thinking that you're just like me

This is how I'm going down
I thought that they never really wanted me around Well I was way off track to think like that Coz now I'm taken back, everything that I ever said bout how they'd never want to see me again
Well this is what I, what I left behind

Forgetting about ourselves Is like history that dust is covering left on the self, on the self
The crosswalks make the way for us to say what we need to say

Yeah, this is how you're going down
You thought I'd never really wanted you around Well you were way off track to think like that

said
bout how I never want to see you again
Well this is what I, what I left behind
This is how you're going down
This is what I, what I left behind
