

Dauntless "Ruins"

Visit "Ruins" on MotoLyrics.com

Forces of the doomed land a battle that got out of hand to the end they stand

Exaggerated revolution takes your life

Tanks are roaring, the earth quakes Soldiers march in a good faith the rage of war they'll face

Hide your face and throw the bottle flames are burning down your land From the ruins freedom rises after everything is lost In their minds the battle haunts after the bodies have been counted and then more will be found

Exaggerated revolution takes your life

Motivation vanished gunfire pierced their bodies
The enemy will punish

Face to face with the enemy
you aim and it fails
Face to face with the enemy
your final breath you take
