I didn't get it when he hung up the phone
He said that he's all alone and that's when I heard her moan, I get it It's not a secret that he's working till late, but then he doesn't come home
And now he's switched off the phone, I get it

Tell me something baby, tell me this ain't true
Tell me something baby, tell me this ain't true
I won't be crying for you no more, baby

The love has gone, that took me high Now you've gone and left me, boy you're wasted my time
It's breaking my heart, you know this ain't fair
I deserve better, but you don't even care

Where is the love, that took me high
Now you've gone and left me, boy you're wasted my
time
It's breaking my heart, you know this ain't fair
I deserve better, but you don't even care

I'm taking back my, my heart from his hands
He's got another love so I'm taking a stand I've stand and watched our, our love drift away
I've looked into his eyes and he had nothing to say

Tell me something baby, tell me this ain't true
Tell me something baby, tell me this ain't true
I won't be crying for you no more, baby
The love has gone, that took me high
Now you've gone and left me, boy you're wasted my
time
It's breaking my heart, you know this ain't fair
I deserve better, but you don't even care

Where is the love, that took me high
Now you've gone and left me, boy you're wasted my
time
It's breaking my heart, you know this ain't fair
I deserve better, but you don't even care

You had me baby, and now we're through You've been messin' with my heart and yes you know it's true
I won't sit here waiting, boy you're out of time
Just look into my eyes you must have something to say

I won't be crying for you no more... baby

The love has gone, that took me high
Now you've gone and left me, boy you're wasted my
time
It's breaking my heart, you know this ain't fair
I deserve better, but you don't even care

Where is the love, that took me high
Now you've gone and left me, boy you're wasted my
time
It's breaking my heart, you know this ain't fair
I deserve better, but you don't even care
