The streets are dark and empty and you walk them all alone
You think about your love affair and wonder what went wrong
You go to bed each night and pray you'll never see the dawn
Afraid of each tomorrow with it's heartless cold unknown And that's what it's like to be lonesome with a heart of broken love has taught to cry
And that's what it's like to be lonesome I know cause I'm a mighty lonesome guy

You search to find a tavern where the music's playing loud
You try to lose your heartache in the laughter of the crowd
But the happy couples make you think of things that might have been Then you'll have to fight the teardrops till you're by yourself again
And that's what it's like to be lonesome...
