The clouds disperse, there's a rainbow.
With big eyes looking so pure.
That say everything about everything.
Been given the chance to grow old.
No one will be more loved than him,
cause he's caught by the safest of hands.
If he cries tears we'll be wide-awake.
By the ones who created this man.
Asleep in a tender world, waiting for...
he sleeps in a perfect world, waiting for...
I wish I was as pure as you.
I wish I was as pure as you.
I wish I was as pure as you.
