I wouldn't want to get fucked by
A kangaroo in any position
We need to block it, block it, it's spongy
Your saviour's only picking on you

You got your foot half way up your dick
I bet you ten pounds it wouldn't fit
I was wrong so you must be rich
The poor girl once an empire
The poor girl once an empire

She lacks in fluid motion all her circles came in squares
No community
No community
You're one of a kind, one of kind sister
Let's break that spell tonight

I paint my thoughts with a hairbrush jet black it's a delicate operation My mirror reflects all it sees coming at the end of my empire
