"Shock Shock"

Well, you scratch and you scratch 'til your face comes away

Replaced by a hole a vortex just waiting to play
I commend your violence

Well, I enter a cave with my wrists sticking out
The soles of my feet worn down to a dusty mess I'll stay numb to these accidents

Well, you talk and you talk like you're trying to shock
me

I don't even know what the fuck we're still arguing about
Maintain my silence

You're a shame to your dad 'cause you're killing his days

Irresponsible life you've only yourself to blame Maintain your friendliness

Well, you talk and you talk like you're trying to shock
me

I don't even know what the fuck we're still arguing
about
Maintain my silence

You're wondering why you're exhausted, exhausted
From using these lies, I'm sure you'll regress again Maintain your silence

I've been crippled by shock, shocked again

I'll continue to douse your violence

With kisses of hate and silence

I've been crippled by shock

Shock, shock, shock, shock, shock
