Today's a blur, little baby
Been up for days

Waking up
Waking up

Devised a plan, little darling
To split the sky

Fade away
Fade away

The time is running out
The time is running out

We'll fade away little baby
Make no mistake
To half as much, half as much

Hmm! Ahh! Fffp!
Bup! Woo! Heh!

The time is running out
The time is running
The water's running out
The water's running
The girl is running out
The girl is running
The girl is running out
The girl

We can leave this faction and start our own
No-one will take it over, no-one
We can leave this faction and start our own
No-one will take it over, no-one

Start our own
Start our own
Start our own
Start our own
And show them backward to the sea
