When you hold my hand time stands still
When the love in my pain fills my heart
It's your love that heals

When I'm feeling this feeling inside
I know that it's true
That every single beat of my heart
Is beating for you

My heart is yours and my love is too
And I love you with all of my heart
Which belongs to you

When your stuck and cold
And loving moves in
And love is shining bright as the sun
Gives my soul from a veil

That every little kiss from your lips
Takes my breath away
And it's right here
By your side I will always stay

My heart is yours
It's where you'll be
Your the only love of my life
Your everything to me

My heart is yours
Is where you'll be
Your the only love of my life
Your everything to me

If I love you with all of my heart
Which belongs to you
