Passing time with you in mind It's another quiet night I feel the ground against my back counting stars against the black thinking of another day wishing i was far away wherever i dreamed i was you were there with me

Sister, I hear you laugh
My heart fills full of love keep me please
sister, when you cry
i feel your tears
running down my face
sister, sister keep me
(guitar solo)

I would never make it through I hope you always know what's true you can make the sun grow dark just by walking away

Playing like we used to play Like it would never go away I feel you beating in my chest I'd be dead without

sister, i hear you laugh
keep me please
sister, when you cry
running down my face
sister, sister keep me
(guitar solo)

I hope you always know what's true that I would never make it through you can make the heavens fall just by walking away

keep me please
sister, when you cry
running down my face
(guitar solo)
