Tables turned again
And you my friend
You and I face each other
Oh time and time out
I know it's sometimes hard
But knowing just doll
That we will get along
'Til we're old and gray
And huddled up
We're doubled up, we'll sit
And laugh of times were hard
Laugh of times when we thought
All it would end, it all it was over
Then again
And know that I am yours this way
And to leave you out, I'll die
Oh my friend
It'll be you until the end with me always
Always
