it's gracious of you
to hold your arms
throw your charms around me
it's gracious of you
to lead me by the hand I really love you
it's gracious of you to be by my side, rolling wild reeling thunder
it's gracious of you
come again, come again to me and save me the need to say goodbye and why would I ask of you, need to say goodbye say it, say it, oh, I don't know how to say this, please, here leave me warm, hollowed and open.

(yodeling....) one more.... (more yodeling) and then leave, yeah.
it's gracious of you to hold me while I don't want to say goodbye, yeah... oh goodbye..... it's too soon for me to say goodbye, say goodbye hey, it's warm here say goodbye leave it cold again, cold again.
say, say goodbye.
