Everybody wake up
If your living with your eyes closed
See the man with the bomb in his hand
Everybody wake up

Oh baby its not easy sometimes But built these walls ever hide and hide behind them Seems we not wait and try and make things right Oh i feel like im crazy sometimes

Everybody wake up
If your living with your eyes closed
See the man with the bomb in his hand
Everybody wake up

I remember the words of a misguided fool do unto others as you want them to do not an eye for an eye is the golden rule just leaves a room full of blind men

....
see the pig dressed in his finest fine
..
as the daylight's sucked with fire

Everybody wake up
Everybody wake up
Everybody wake up
Wake up

Everybody wake up
If your livin with your eyes closed
See the man with the bun in his hand
Everybody wake up
