Sitting still as stone watching, watching people walking by wondering why no one ever stops to talk or thinks about what if they ever did

What if God shuffled by one day we might see we're doing not a thing like breathing just to breathe we might find some reason

But rushing around seems whats wrong with the world don't lose the dreams inside your head they'll only be there til' you're dead dream

Lying on the roof counting the stars that fill the sky I wonder is someone in the heavens looking back down on me I'll never know

So much space to believe funny when you're small how the moon follows the car there's no one but you see hey the moon is chasing me and I worried if I looked away she'd be gone

Oh oh oh

walking through the wood no cares in the world the world
she's come to play

she's all mine just for a day

There's not a moment to lose in the game don't let the troubles in your head steal too much time, you'll soon be dead so play

all fall down
it won't be so long now out of the darkness comes light like a flash you think you can
sometimes that is the problem

Spinning on the wind
the leaf fell from the limb and everyday should be a good day to die
it won't be too long now every fire dies out I find it hard to explain how I've got here
I think I can
then again I will falter dream, oh I think I can I think I can
