"Hope For An Angel"

Visit "Hope For An Angel" on MotoLyrics.com

I believe in the human need to believe there's hope for an angel
One who's gone, for he had become, in the sky there's space for an angel Overhead, if you look real hard, you will see that there's millions of angels
One who's gone, for he had become, in the sky there's
space for an angel

I believe in the human need to believe there's hope for
an angel
One who's gone, for he had become, in the sky there's
space for an angel
Into the sky there's a space for an angel Look to the sky there's a space for an angel
