Our love was volatile and weird
All I thought as I hopped the Greyhound was Get me the fuck outta here

I ran, I ran away from you
I packed my tears and all my fears
I had nothing better to do

Mommy, mommy, I know you know the truth
I'm sorry that you're heartbroken
Now all I am is missing you

And when I left, I dropped a trail of candy hearts
Hoping you would search for me, I just want to come home tonight
This is the story of my life

One week, shouldn't have even been one day
I am calling from a pay phone
Twenty three hundred miles away

Bad things I can not even say
If not for the kindness of strangers
I would not be alive today

Mommy, mommy, I know you know the truth
I'm sorry that you're heartbroken
Now all I am is missing you

And when I left, I dropped a trail of candy hearts
Hoping you would search for me, I just want to come
home tonight
This is the story of my life

Mommy, mommy, I know you know the truth
I'm sorry that you're heartbroken
Now all I am is missing you

And when I left, I dropped a trail of candy hearts
Hoping you would search for me, I just want to come
home tonight
That was the story of my life
