Not enough, never too much
Baby look just like love
Rolling stone gathers no moss
But leave a trail of busted stuff

I know she's gonna leave my broken heart behind her
I dig what she's giving up
I know she's gonna leave my broken heart behind her
I dig what she's giving up

I move in to kiss those sweet sugar lips
Baby look just like love
Without a care she floats above me
She got me down here looking up

I know she's gonna leave my broken heart behind her
I dig what she's giving up
I know she's gonna leave this broken man behind
Yeah,Yeah

She's the one for me
When she moves
She moves so cool
She makes me feel just like a fool
But inside is where the devil rise
The Women look just like love
I know she's gonna leave my broken heart behind her
I dig what she's giving up,yeah
I know she's gonna leave this broken man behind
Yeah,yeah

She's the one
She's the one
She's the one for me
Yeah,yeah,yeah

I know she's gonna leave this broken man behind
Yeah,yeah
