

Dave Matthews Band And Dave Matthews "Heathcliff's Haiku Warriors"

Visit "Heathcliff's Haiku Warriors" on MotoLyrics.com

I won't be so what will we wait
And our reasons sew away
Then we crawl out of our holes into the open air
Take us so long we cried away
In corners they may feel
But oh no what I see
But I know it's not fair
Baby say you love me
And don't leave her waiting
By the any one word
You call me up and say a lie
So child take'em I call to come again
And now I'm watching you
Why and it's all into the old way back
We swing our hands and hope
That everyone comes back
I don't believe you're saying
I don't believe what you're doing here
Tell me good intentions
And what you hang from your tree
I don't believe what you said
But walkin by my door
I find all these smilin' faces
Locked up and tied
Oh the rhythm, an old song I heard
Wild and afraid I'll sail away again
Memories fall
Hey we feel so cold
I really thought it was cool winter day
Not to buy
We buy the air down the wall
Say this one time
We all, they could do it for a week or more
Then they wait and buy it
I don't care no matter what
I will mend me one too
Pour the soul out in an open page
Crushed by our memories
So my happiness fell away
And tore my mind and darkness fell here videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.