On the window ledge I don't feel safe,
Stay looking down on you

It's out of my hands for now
It's out of my hands for now
I can't just walk away
It'd be nice to walk away
But I don't feel safe
Get away, all the way up here

whispered I said
It's out of my hands for now
It's out of my hands for now
Oh it is down from here
Down from here

whispered I said
Start to feel insane, betrayed
Out on my window ledge

And now our finest hour arrives,
See the pig dressed in his finest fine
And all the believers stand behind him and smile
And the day lights up with fire
Let me in
Let me in
I stopped feeling crazed, betrayed
Out on my window ledge

And now our finest hour arrives,
See the pig dressed in his finest fine
And all the believers stand behind him and smile
Watch the day lights up in fire
Lookin' down from here

It's out of my hands for now
On my window ledge
It's out of my hands for now
So let me in
Let me in
