She put an eviction note
On the door frame of your heart
'Cause what seems to melt together
Just seems to shatter apart

So watch your feelings
'Cause the pieces can be very sharp
You have this talent for Shooting down a shooting star

And the truth of this smart ass is well
I'm not very smart

It's gonna be a long night tonight
All the planets are aligned
And the signs are just right

I wanna state for the record
That I didn't mean to ruin her
I didn't mean to wreck her
It's gonna be a long night tonight

So I, took a vacation from
All the things I should become
'Cause driving the nine to fives
Never seemed like very much fun

Look in the mirror are
You recognizing anyone
We're overrated and we're weathered
But we've just begun
I've got my hands on all of this
'Cause I can never stop at one

It's gonna be a long night tonight
All the planets are aligned
And the signs are just right for flight
I wanna state for the record

That I didn't mean to ruin her
I didn't mean to wreck her
It's gonna be a long night tonight

And my knees are bruised
Well, it's from begging you
And you need good news
Well, stand in line, 'cause we're all over

Are you sure you're sure
Or did you say if for the hell of it
So you've had one life
What do you have to show for it

I am a sleepwalker
And I'm stuck inside a daydream
I am just a sound wave
In a silent scream

It's gonna be a long night tonight
We've got our hands in the air
'Cause the rhythm is just right
I wanna state for the record

That I didn't mean to ruin her
I didn't mean to wreck her
I had to be the song
She couldn't shake from her head
It's gonna be a long night tonight
