You're stuck, like dragging your feet through the mud
Always talking 'bout things that you just can't do then Making a scene, well that's just like you
You don't learn do you?

There's no one to touch you, no one to care
No one to touch you, 'cos there's nobody there
No one get's close, you're so wrapped up in your head
You want it too bad, so you'll get stuck by yourself
instead

And you're stuck, you're just stuck now
Stuck, you just suck now

You fucked up, another slip between lip and the cup
At the first taste of pain you go "wah wah wah"

Explain it away, it's all "blah blah blah"
You don't know who you are

There's no one to touch you, no one to care
No one to touch you, 'cos there's nobody there
No one get's close, you're so wrapped up in your head
You want it? Too bad, 'cos you'll get left by yourself
instead

You're stuck, stuck, you're just stuck now

No one to touch you, no one to touch you 'cos there's nobody there
No one gets close, you're so wrapped up in your head
You want it so badly, you'll get left by yourself instead

You're Stuck!
