(Tony Martin/Tim Nichols)

Okay I admit it
I'm seeing someone
And it's gotten beyond a movie or two
Now you boys were present
When I swore off fallin in love
But that was never really meant as a hard and fast rule

I'm not sayin I will
I'm not sayin I won't
I'm just feelin somethings that I usually don't
I'm starting to see the attraction of settling down
Now, I mighta been rash, talking take 'em or leave 'em
That night down at Buster's
That bull about freedom
She's sure something, something to think about

She's tender-hearted, open and honest
I can sit and talk with her all night
She's so smart and charming
Not to mention she possesses
Those qualities you superficial guys like

I'm not sayin I will
I'm not sayin I won't
I'm just feelin somethings that I usually don't
I'm starting to see the attraction of settling down
Now, I mighta been rash, talkin take 'em or leave 'em
That night down at Buster's
That bull about freedom
She's sure something, something to think about

She's enough to make me reconsider
My views on vows and rings and such
Mortgages and babysitters
The consequences of falling in love

I'm not sayin I will
I'm not sayin I won't
I'm just feelin somethings that I usually don't

I'm starting to see the attraction of settling down
Now, I mighta been rash, talking take 'em or leave 'em
That night down at Buster's
That bull about freedom
She's sure something, something to think about
Oh, she's something, something to think about
