"The Spare"

you've been hiding something cuz i don't feel what i felt when i first met ya i've been dying inside cuz i i wasn't really sure and now i know you kept it all in the dark now i see it clear

somebody's there, somebody's there lend me the key to your heart while he's got the spare, he's got the spare i can't believe how blind i've been so lost couldn't see your deceive comin' you've betrayed me time and time again first i wasn't sure and now i know
