A window to the Orient

In a picture frame

I know you are a Lady

Nobody knows your name

Lady from the Orient in a council flat

She never looks me in the eye, she never answers back

If I could buy a ticket, I'd gladly run away

Ride in on the trade wind and marry you someday

Staring at my masterpiece

The boys all read Parade

Chong Sam and red lipstick

Her skin a precious jade

Lady from the Orient in a council flat

She never looks me in the eye, she never answers back

If I could buy a ticket, I'd gladly run away

Ride in on the trade wind and marry you someday

Mass produced the daydream

Or should I pay the rent?

Breakout of the concrete

Set sail for Orient

Lady from the Orient in a council flat

She never looks me in the eye, she never answers back

If I could buy a ticket, I'd gladly run away

Ride in on the trade wind and marry you someday

Dry your eyes SalomÃ©

Mona Lisa too

Lady in the picture frame

My heart belongs too you

Lady from the Orient in a council flat

She never looks me in the eye, she never answers back

If I could buy a ticket, I'd gladly run away

Ride in on the trade wind and marry you someday

Lady from the Orient in a council flat

She never looks me in the eye, she never answers back

If I could buy a ticket, I'd gladly run away

Ride in on the trade wind and marry you someday
