(Scotty Morris)

Hey Jack...I know what you're thinking.

That now's as good as any to start drinking.

Hey Scotty...Yeah...What's it gonna be?

A gin & tonic sounds might mighty good to me.

Man I know I gotta go it's the same thing every time,

But I don't think another drinks' gonna make me lose
my mind.

So I think about my next drink,

And it's you & me and the bottle makes 3 tonight.

Well I know this cat named Mo. He wanders to and fro.

His and my favorite waterin' hole.

I said hey Mo, "how you doing, where have you been?"

He said, "I've been fine with my whiskey, wine and gin."

Man I know I gotta go it's the same thing every time,

But I don't think another drinks' gonna make me lose
my mind.

So I think about my next drink,

And it's you & me and the bottle makes 3 tonight.
