Pardon me sir
I don't know who you are
But I think I see something in your eyes
Though I could be wrong

Winter is here and all the roses lie
Deep beneath the snow
That's where lovers go to hide
From pain and sorrow

Never for sure when your luck will turn
Waiting out that snowy day
Hope for a cure that someday you'll learn
Why love keeps on going when there's no one there?

Pardon me sir
I think it's up from here
Take this one from me
One day you'll feel free to fly away wherever you want to

Never can tell where the dawn will break
When you find your shoulder to cry on
After a spell, you won't feel the ache
And you'll forget the corner you've been living in so long

You'll breathe a sigh and see
It's time to move along
Just a little stronger when the winter's gone
When the winter's gone
