"A Foggy Day In London Town"

I was a stranger in the city
Out of town were the people I knew I had that feeling of self-pity
What to do? What to do? What to do?
The outlook was decidedly blue
But as I walked through the foggy streets alone
It turned out to be the luckiest day
I've known

A foggy day in London Town
Had me low and had me down
I viewed the morning with alarm
The British Museum had lost its charm
How long, I wondered,
could this thing last?
But the age of miracles hadn't passed,
For, suddenly, I saw you there And through foggy London Town
The sun was shining everywhere.
