Baby, you can own two hearts Baby, don't try to tear me apart Someone's got to go and I won't, I won't
That's a promise
Baby, you can't fool around Baby, can't turn me upside down Someone's got to go and I won't, I won't That's a promise
It's just a matter of time before you call him on the phone Tell him please, please leave him alone
Please
leave him alone
It's just a matter of time, call him on the phone Tell him please, please leave him alone
Please leave him alone
Baby, you've got me used Baby, can't you be like you? Someone's got to go and I won't, I won't That's a promise (ad lib to end)
