And stare at the sun

Till my eyes burn

I shake

At the mothers brutal vermin

I shake

And stare at the watery moon

With the same desire

As the sober Philistine

And I shake

(Turn and turn again)

Worm, the pain and blade

Turn and turn again

The screw

Is a tightening Atrocity

I shake

For the reeking flesh

Is as romantic as hell

The need

To have seen it all

The Voyeur of Utter Destruction

As beauty

I shake

Turn and turn again

I shake

Turn and turn again

I shake [x3]

Research has pierced

All extremes of my sex

Call it a day

Call it a day

Needle point life

Blinds the will to be next

Call it a day [repeat]

Today [repeat ad. inf]
