J'voudrais te dire, comme je le sais
Dans un sourire, les mots, les vrais
Ceux qui se donnent sans demander
Comme on fredonne un air anglais

Another day, another promise for tomorrow
Another dream that will always end in sorrow

J'veux tout te dire, tout t'avouer
Les choses, les pires comme je le sais
Des nuits d'amour en jour d'aprÃs
Quand les retours sont des regrets

Another day, another promise for tomorrow
Another dream that will always end in sorrow
Another night, another high, another low
Another dream, another thing that you should know

Another promise for tomorrow
Another dream that will end in sorrow
Another high and another low

Another thing that you should know

M'abandonner pour toi, pour ne rien regretter
Comme pour une fois, envie de tout oublier

Another promise for tomorrow
Another dream that will end in sorrow
Another high and another low
Another thing that you should know

Another promise for tomorrow
Another dream that will end in sorrow
Another high and another low
Another thing that you should know
