Here's a song that I wrote for us
It's simple, so we both can remember
I'll sing this when I am feeling alone
And you do the same
When I sing this song
I'll be thinking of you
I'll be thinking of you
When I sing this song
Know that anywhere you are
You're really not that far
When you're singing our song
Even as days go and disappear
I'll still hold your hand and I'll say
Forever and ever, we'll be here together
And nothing can take that away
When I sing this song
I'll be thinking of you
I'll be thinking of you
When I sing this song
Know that anywhere you are
You're really not that far

When you're singing our song

When I sing this song

I'll be thinking of you

I'll be thinking of you

When I sing this song

Know that anywhere you are

You're really not that far

When you're singing our song

Our song, our song
